Welcome Visitors!

Welcome on this Lord's Day. In this church, we place great value on the family, and we consider it a privilege to have you join with our church family today. God, our heavenly Father, has changed our lives for the better. We hope that you will feel His presence here as we honor Him in our worship. We extend a warm welcome and invite you to attend our other services.

Blankets for children

We have no sew blankets to make for the children at Lake Travis Elementary.

The blankets need to be finished and returned by next Sunday so we can delivery them before the Christmas break.

If you haven't done this before, ask Melissa Lovelace for the simple instructions.

Missions in American Samoa:

Enjoyed a great weekend with family and friends for Thanksgiving. Finishing with a great turkey stew Danna made.

Last Sunday of the month singing went well at Leone.

David

"Thus the fact that there exist men who are indifferent to the loss of their being and the peril of an eternity of wretchedness is against nature. With everything else they are quite different; they fear the most trifling things, foresee and feel them; and the same man who spends so many days and nights in fury and despair at losing some office or at some imaginary affront to his honour is the very one who knows that he is going to loose everything through death but feels neither anxiety nor emotion. It is a monstrous thing to see one and the same heart at once so sensitive to minor things and so strangely insensitive to the greatest."

-Blaise Pascal (Krailsheimer translation)
