Missions in American Samoa:

Duston arrived Monday night. It has been great to have him here.

On Thursday night, Duston spoke to the youth groups of Nu'uuli and Tafuna Church of Christ. He did a great job telling his story to the teens. He talked about persistence and attitude, among other things. The evening ended with ice cream and cake.

On Friday, Danna cut the ribbon at an apartment complex that Tia Misa is building. The ribbon cutting was for the completion of the first four apartments. I gave a short talk and offered a prayer at this celebration.

Friday evening, Duston, Dylan, Danna, Jacob Dale and I delivered food to 13 families from church. This came as a complete surprise to the families. I am so glad we were able to share our blessings with others.

Saturday evening, we had some friends over for Christmas Eve dinner and gift opening. It was fun.

Sunday morning was great. We had 92 for services. This breaks a previous record of 87. Following services, we handed out gifts to all the children, from birth through teens. The North Penn Church of Christ had sent gift wrapped books with book marks for all the children. It was fun to give these gifts to all the recipients.

Sunday evening, we hosted 17 people for a Christmas dinner. Fun was had by all, as well as full bellies.

We hope you had a great Christmas. We certainly did.

Tuesday, we will go for a few days to Samoa. We will return on Saturday.

Please take a look at the "Friends of Tafuna Church of Christ" Facebook page for pictures.
