Your Child Deserves...

*A weary mother returned from the store,
Lugging groceries through the kitchen door,
Awaiting her arrival was her 8-year-old son,
Anxious to relate what his younger brother
had done.*

*"While I was out playing and Dad was on
call,*

*T. J. took his crayons and wrote on the wall!
It's on the new paper you just hung in the den.*

I told him you'd be mad at having to do it again."

*She let out a moan and furrowed her brow,
"Where is your little brother right now!"
She emptied her arms and with a purposeful
stride,
She marched to his closet where he had gone
to hide.*

She called his full name as she entered his room.

He trembled with fear - he knew that meant doom!

For the next ten minutes, she ranted and raved

About the expensive wallpaper that she had saved.

Lamenting all the work it would take to repair,

She condemned his actions and total lack of care.

*The more she scolded, the madder she got,
Then stomped from his room, totally distraught!*

*She headed for the den to confirm her fears.
When she saw the wall, her eyes flooded
with tears.*

The message she read pierced her soul with a dart.

It said, "I love Mommy," surrounded by a heart.

Well, the wallpaper remained, just as she Missions in American Samoa:

If all goes well, we will have a ground breaking ceremony the first Saturday of February. It will be an exciting day.

David

*found it,
With an empty picture frame hung to surround it.*

*A reminder to her, and indeed to us all.
Take time to read the handwriting on the wall.*

(Poem by Unknown Author)

*I know from personal experience that sometimes our children make horrible mistakes, and hurt us deeply.
These mistakes are not usually done intentionally—but nonetheless have been done. One thing I know for sure is that our children love us and want to please us—this sometimes comes in the strangest ways. The point that I want to make is that since our children do love us—we need to love them
in return.*

If we really love our children we will do our best to "nurture them in the chastening and admonition of the Lord" (Eph. 6:4). Solomon said, "Train up a child in the way he should go, And even when he is old he will not depart from it" (Pro. 22:6). Return your children's love with true love.

Your child deserves...

...to hear you pray earnestly and often.

...to go to worship and Bible classes with you regularly.

...to see you sacrifice for the Lord.

...to go with you to visit the sick and bereaved.

...to be taught the Bible by you.

...to hear you praise the church and her leaders.

*...to be encouraged by you to seek and obey
the truth always.*

...to see you putting the Lord first in your giving.

...to know the Christ living in you.

Think about it!
